Glencoe Mansion Gallery will host "A Journey For All", a multi-artist exhibit that showcases aspects of colonial heroine Mary Draper Ingles' life to be on display July 12 – August 20, 2023.

Artwork Accepted Themes:

Artwork should reflect or be based on: the life and times of Mary Draper Ingles, expressions of life during the colonial period, and histories of all the peoples, from settlers to indigenous cultures to enslaved people, who called the frontier home. This includes, but is not limited to depictions of local landmarks (for example, Ingles Farm, the Cultural and Heritage Park, Ingles Tavern and other connected sites in the region), and Colonial style art. All fine arts and fine craft media including painting, plein air, illustration, digital media, textiles, mixed media and photography will be considered. Artists may submit up to three (3) artworks for consideration.

Glencoe Mansion Gift shop will also be accepting the abovementioned themed handicrafts. Handicrafts and 3-Dimensional works will be assessed on an individual basis.

Important Dates:

June 13th, 5pm: Application Deadline

June 30, July 1-2, 5-6: Artwork Drop Off at Glencoe Mansion (during business hours; by appointment)

July 28 - 30: Mary Draper Ingles Festival

August 23 - 27: Artwork Retrieval (during business hours; by appointment)

Eligibility:

Open to artists in and around the NRV area, ages 16 and up. Individuals under the age of 18 must have approval of application from legal guardian. Artists must be available to drop off artwork between the dates of June 30, July 1-2, 5-6 and pick up between the dates of August 23 – 27, during regular business hours (Wednesday – Saturday 10am-4pm, Sunday 1pm-4pm) and by appointment. Artists must have their work ready to hang using gallery wire.

Acceptance:

Artists will be notified via email of which works are accepted. Your work may be photographed in the gallery setting for social media and press release promotions, with all efforts made to credit artists. We will not duplicate, use, or recreate any trademarked or original digital files or images without artist permission.

Mary Draper Ingles Festival & Artist Reception:

Glencoe Mansion, Museum and Gallery will be hosting a weekend long event that celebrates the life & journey of Mary Draper Ingles on July 28-30. Along with festivities, Glencoe Mansion Gallery will be hosting a reception to showcase the featured artists on Friday July 28th, from 5:30-7pm.

Sale of Work:

Artists are encouraged to have their work for sale. Glencoe Mansion Gallery collects a 25% commission on all gallery sales. Artists will receive payment for any sales approximately two weeks after the conclusion of the exhibit.
